About F.A.C.E Family Voice Council Interest Form

The mission of the About F.A.C.E. (Families and Communities Engaged) Family Voice Council is to improve the quality of life for families by providing a forum/space for families to share their experiences and concerns, and to advocate for policies and programs that support families. The Family Voice Council will achieve their mission by:

- 1. Providing a forum for families to share their experiences and concerns (using their lived experience).
- 2. Advocating for policies and programs that support their families.
- 3. Building partnerships with other organizations that work with families.
- 4. Raising awareness of the needs of families.

The About F.A.C.E. Family Voice Council believes that families are the experts on their own lives, and their voices should be heard in the decision-making process. The Family Voice Council is committed to working with and improving the quality of life for all families. If you are interested in being a part of this work, we encourage you to complete this interest form and return it to the About F.A.C.E. Family Voice Coordinator.

If you have any questions or would like to apply, please contact About F.A.C.E. Family Voice Coordinator, Sharon Mauch at: sharon.mauch2@gmail.com or 719-688-3234

Purpose of the Family Voice Council:

- To provide consistent access to family voice to guide the development and improvement of agency services and systems and to advocate for adequate resource distribution and access to effective services when and where they are needed.
- To promote full inclusion of all peoples/communities across our counties to ensure broad representation of ideas and strategies as well as identification of what is not working.
- To adhere to a Continuous Quality Improvement approach for constant evaluation, learning and improvement using multiple avenues of input from families, service providers, agencies, and systems.
